October 25, 1945.

Congratulations to Ralph E. McGill, Editor, Atlanta Constitution, who has agreed to act as part time consultant on news policy to William Benton, Assistant Secretary of State.

Have you heard Manny Komroff's new program on Station WNEW, Tuesdays from 10 to 10:30 P. M. called "Komroff Reports?"

Webb Waldron, one of our active members, is dead.

Sydney Moseley sends his regards from Sweden and England.

A. Wilfred May, has become executive editor of the Commercial and Financial Chronicle.

Welcome to a new associate member, William R. Matthews, Editor of the Arizona Daily Star.

We forgot to report that Jack Lait is now among our married members.

Thanks to Harry Price, Vice-President, the club had the rare treat of hearing Admiral Land last week. He didn't pull any punches.

Orton Tewson, member of the Board, is probably one of the earliest columnists in this country as he will soon celebrate his 25th year of writing for U.S., Canadian and English newspapers.

Attention- Board of Governors Meeting at the Home of Bill Chaplin, 8:30 P. M. Monday, Oct. 29th to discuss important club matters.

The week of November 5th has been designated by the Lester Cowan Organization as "Overseas Correspondents Week" for the Ernie Pyle picture "G I JOE," at the Globe Theatre. A contribution to our Correspondents Fund will be made by the Lester Cowan Organization so a press release is enclosed which all of our members are urged to use in order to put over the week. Call the office on further information.

Irene Kuhn is just back from China.

Caesar Searchinger has returned from a lecture tour in the West, four days of which were spent as a guest lecturer at Western Reserve University.

-----
There is only one way to show your genuine interest in the club and that is to attend our gatherings and help to do the constructive work which is needed.
